The Five Strengths (Sanskrit, Pali: pañcabala) in Buddhism -- critical to our progress on the path to enlightenment -- are: faith, energy, mindfulness, concentration, and wisdom.They are one of the seven sets of Bodhipakkhiyadhamma ("qualities conducive to enlightenment"). You may wonder why our feature image for pancabala is a monk creating an elaborate sand mandala ...

It is thought that Central Asia has had contact with Buddhism since the time of the Buddha himself: there are records of a pair of merchant brothers from Bactria (modern-day northern Afghanistan, Tajikistan and southern Uzbekistan) visiting the Buddha and becoming his disciples; upon their return to Bactria, they built temples to him.
